S. SANDS' EXCELSIOR MANIPULATED GUANO No. 1.

HAVE engaged in the Manipulation of GU-ANOS, and am now ready to supply the Far-ners and Planters of the United States with an article which I consider superior to anything of the kind which has yet been produced, having an unusual amount I believe, of the valuable ingredients in this article. During my editorship of the "American Farmer," with which until within a few months. I have been connected for 25 years, I have nost emphatically urged upon the Farmers and Planters that the mixture of the Ammoniacal Guano (Peruvian) with the Phosphatic (Mexican, Columbian, &c...) was the best and cheapest appli-cation to most crops they could apply. For more general views upon this subject, I refer to the paes of the American Farmer; and also, to my cir ular just issued (and which will be forwarded to any one desiring it) in which this view is ably sustained by Dr. Bickell, Analytical Chemist, of this

THE EXCELSIOR MANIPULATED GUANO WILL BE PUT UP IN BAGS AND MARKED

S. Sands' Excelsior Manipulated Guano,

AND WILL CONTAIN

14 to 10 per cent, Ammonia and 45 to 50 per cent. Phosphates.
It is intended that it shall reach the highest of these standards, but some allowance is desired to be made, to meet any possible short-coming which by accident may be made. The Excelsion No. I I believe equal to the best Peruvian Guano on any op to which that article is applied, and will surss it as improvement to land. The Agricultural aublic have been much imposed upon by all sorts of professed fertilizers, but I have no hesitation in saying, that I believe this compound will be found the "Ne Plus Ultra" of anything of the kind which has yet been produced; and with this confidence

THE PIG IN THE FENCE. BY HAZEL GREEN, ESQ. Oh! where are the friends of the pig in the fence? "Where?" echo replies. He has none! There were numbers around him a few moments since, But now he is fast, they are gone, Gone! Only their friendship is gone; they are here, Cavorting and "charging" immense, And joining the throng in afflicting the rear

Of the pig that is fast in the fence They seek not the cause that placed him between The rails. Oh, no! Why should they care, Since with bristles erect they can rush to the scene To punish him while he is there! Fo raise the cry loudly, so all, far and near, May know his condition, and hence Come running to join them in biting the rear

Of the pig that is fast in the fence. They would not release him, although it might cost Not a step more than taken before, But, on the contrary, they'd do their utmost To perplex and involve him the more;

To press him more closely, mayhap, through the fear That he might betake him from thence And punish them sorely for biting the rear Of the pig that was fast in the fence.

But swine are not all of the creatures that be That find themselves sticking between The rails of the fence; and who strive to get free While the world is still shoving them in; Who find that the favor they meet with depends Not on worth, but on dollars and cents. And that there are none who will prove themselves friends To the pig that is fast in the fence!

A POINTED SERMON .- Many a discourse of an hour's length is not half as impressive as the following from an eccentric English divine: "Be sober, grave, temperate."-Titus ii. 9. There are three companions with whom you should always keep on good terms:

II. If you wish to enjoy peace, long life, and happiness, preserve them by temperance. Intemperance produces: 1. Domestic misery.

2. Your stomach.

2. Premature death. 3. Intidelity. To make these points clear I refer you-1. To the Newgate Calender. 2. To the hospitals, lunatic asylums, and work-

3. To the past experience of what you have seen, read, and suffered, in mind, body and estate. Reader, decide! which will you choose; temperance with happiness and long life? or intemperance with misery and premature death?

Captain W. tells an amusing occurrence, witnessed by him last week on board his steamer, on her passage down. An oldish and somewhat purblind gentle man, pacing up and down the upper saloon, stopped in front of a large full length mirror, and, after gazing at the figure presented for a moment, inquired deliberately : "Is-your-name-Brown?"

No reply. Question is again repeated louder.

"Is-your-name-Brown!" No reply. Question is again repeated, louder "Is-vour-name-BROWN?" "Well, sir," said the questioner, "you are either o gentleman, or very deaf."

The saloon was in a rear.

"Father," said a young lisper of some four summers, "when wath the flood?" "O. my son," replied the parent, "that happened a long time ago." "Wath we alive then?" persisted the little in-

"No, dear," was the reply, "the flood we read of in the bible happened many thousand years ago," "Well, now," rejoined the boy in great disgust, "that is too bad! I thought Tom Brown (another youngster of the same age) was fibbin. He thaid to me thith mornin that he was there, and waded his friends, that he is a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Alexandria City and County, at the next election, and respectfully solicits their votes. He refers to his past conduct as a guarantee for Zer-A CARD.—Expecting at the proper time o announce myself as a candidate for the Sheriff-
